Message from the Southeast Chair:

It's almost here!

In less than a month the Southeast Chapter will be hosting its always memorable Suppliers' Social Event! As you will see elsewhere in the newsletter, a great event is planned at the Memphis Brooks Museum of Art; the oldest and largest fine arts museum in Tennessee. We will tour "A Taste for China" a diverse selection of objects—including exquisite porcelain, richly gilded lacquer-work, intricate embroidery, and a jade mummy suit—A Taste for China draws on private and public collections to celebrate a longstanding and rich cultural relationship. In addition we will again have the Memphis Harp Ensemble—also including a flute and violin—performing live! A great dinner will also be on site at the Brushmark restaurant.

Invest in precious metals! While others watch their precious metal investments rise and fall with the emotions of the market, our tiered sponsorships allow you to see your investment steadily support and grow a professional society that is dedicated to partnership with you. Silver is $100, gold is $250 and platinum is $500; please consider a donation. A poster will recognize donors at the event and acknowledgements will also be made from the podium. In order to allow time for creation of the acknowledgement poster, please notify Kevin Fowler, Billy Maness or Lisa Sloan of your sponsorship pledge by May 20th; after this deadline, poster acknowledgement cannot be guaranteed. Thank You! Please also consider contributions of door prizes; if possible these should be sent ahead to allow proper recognition of donors at door prize time.

Lastly, those of you who regularly attend the monthly meetings have seen your chairperson bang on glasses, plates (and even a wine bucket!) to mark the time for being seated. Well, for the large group that is sure to attend this great event I have a new surprise attention getter, guaranteed to turn heads! I won't say any more about it; come and find out!

I look forward to seeing you on May 25th!
Kevin Fowler, Southeast Chapter Chair
